When the last rose of summer pricks my finger
When the last bolt of sunshine hits the mountain

A D

And the hot sun chills me to the bone
And the stars start to splatter in the sky

A D

When I can't hear the song for the singer
When the moon splits the southwest horizon

F#m E D

And I can't tell my pillow from a stone
With the scream of an eagle on the fly

(chorus)

E A D A

I will walk alone by the black muddy river

A D

And sing me a song of my own
And listen to the ripples as they moan

E A D A

I will walk alone by the black muddy river

F#m E D

And sing me a song of my own

Bm E A E D
Black muddy river Roll on forever
E A E A
I don't care how deep or wide If you got another side
D A D A
Roll muddy river Roll muddy river
D E A
Black muddy river roll

(third verse just like first two verses above)

When it seems like the night will last forever
And there's nothing left to do but count the years
When the strings of my heart start to sever
And stones fall from my eyes instead of tears

(chorus) (And dream me a dream of my own)

Bm E A E D
