Moses come ridin' up on a quasar.
His spurs was jingling, the door was ajar.
His buckle was silver, his manner was bold.
I asked him to come on in out of the cold.

Am Em F C F G C

His brain was boiling, his reason was spent.
Nothing is borrowed, nothing is lent.

C F C F C G C

I asked him for mercy, he gave me a gun.
Now and again these things just got to be done.

Gideon come in with his eyes on the floor
Says, "You ain't got a hinge, you can't close the door."
Moses stood up a full six foot and ten
Says, "You can't close the door when the walls caved in."
