I have always heard that virtue ought be its own reward,
But it never comes so easy when you're living by the sword.
It's even harder to be heartless when you look at me that way.
You're as mighty as the flower that will grow the stones away.

Even though I been a stranger, full of irony and spite
Holding little but contempt for all things beautiful and bright,
Something shines around you and it seems, to my delight
To give me just a little sweetness...
Just a little light.

This could be just another highway, coiled up in the night.

Dm

You could be just another white-tail, baby, stranded on my brights,

There's a tingling recognition like the sound of distant thunder

And I begin to wonder if the love I've driven under Won't ignite.
