E C#m
 1: The rag-man he draws circles
 2: Shakespeare, he's in the alley
 3: Mona tried to tell me
 4: Grandpa died last week
 5: Now the senator he come down here
 6: Now the preacher looked so baffled
 7: Now the rainman gave me two cures
 8: When Ruthie says come see me
 9: Now the bricks lay on Grand Street

E C#m
 Up and down the block.
 With his pointed shoes and his bells.
 stay far away from the railroad line.
 they buried him in the rocks
 Showing everyone his gun.
 When I asked him why he dressed
 Then he said "Jump right in"
 In her honkey-tonk lagoon,
 Where the neon madmen climb

E C#m
 1: I'd ask him what's matter
 2: Speaking to a French girl,
 3: She said that all the railroad men
 4: Everyone still talks about
 5: Handing out free tickets
 6: With twenty pounds of headlines
 7: The one was Texas medicine
 8: Where I can watch her waltz for free
 9: They all fall there so perfectly.

A B
 But I know he don't talk.
 Who says she knows me well.
 Drink up your blood like wine.
 How badly they were shocked.
 To the wedding of his son.
 Stapled to his chest
 The other railroad gin.
 'Neath her Panamanian moon.
 It all seems so well timed.

A E
 1: And the ladies treat me kindly
 2: And I would send a message
 3: I said "Oh, I didn't know that
 4: Not me I expected it to happen
 5: An' me I nearly got busted
 6: But he cursed when I proved to him
 7: An like a fool I mixed them
 8: An' I say, "Aw come on now
 9: An' here I sit so patiently

C#m E
 And they furnish me with tape
 To find out if she's talked,
 But then again there's only one I've me
 I knew he'd lost control
 An wouldn't it be my luck
 Then I whispered not even you can hide.
 An' it strangled up my mind
 You know about my debutante."
 Waiting to find out what price

C# E
 1: But deep inside my heart
 2: Post the post office has been stolen
 3: He just smoked my eyelids
 4: When he built a bar on main street
 5: To get caught without a ticket
 6: You see you're just like me I hope your satisfied
 7: An' now people just get uglier
 8: debutante knows just what you need she said but I know what you want 9: You have to pay to get out of

A E
 I know I can't escape
 And the mail box is locked.
 An' punched my cigarette"
 And shot it full of holes.
 And be discovered beneath a truck
 An' I have no sense of time.
 Going through all these things twice

1-9:	G#m	Oh	G#m	Oh Mama	G#m	Could this really	G#m	be the end	To be
